The fun that Antioch is famous for starts on Thursday and won't end until Sunday evening.

THE LIONS CLUB'S annual Farmers Picnic and Chicken Bar-B-Que & Auction will last from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Sunday at the Aqua Center.

The day begins at 9:30 a.m. with an invitational swimming meet. Young swimmers from five cities will compete.

A square dance demonstration begins at 12 noon and the farmer's auction at 2 p.m. Proceeds from the auction will benefit the Antioch Rescue Squad.

There also will be games, races, prizes and surprises for the youngsters. A complete schedule of their events appears in the advertisement on page 15. Some of the interesting

PM&L's 'Fiddler' Is Super

Congratulations! Bravo! Mazel Tov! Antioch's PM&L Theatre deserves all the applause we can muster for last Saturday's opening night performance of "Fiddler on the Roof."

It was thoroughly enjoyable and remarkably well done. Those who have seen "Fiddler" in larger cities on bigger stages were amazed at how well the local troupe adapted it to the cozy PM&L quarters. And at how professionally the cast performed.

IT APPEARS the remaining four performances will be sellouts. But you might get tickets if you call the reservations number, 395-3055.

Bicentennial Celebration To Be Aug. 31

The Antioch Bicentennial Commission has set Sunday, Aug. 31, as the day of its official celebration of the nation's 200th birthday.

The group originally was planning to hold the celebration in conjunction with Sunday's Lions Club Bar-B-Que, but decided that too many activities were being held on the same day.

The Aug. 31 celebration probably will be in the area of the cannon on Broadway St.

A three-man committee, Mayor Robert Wilton, Gus Costoff and Dr. Al Bucar, is working on inviting dignitaries and making other plans.

THE BICENTENNIAL Commission will be selling its decals and jackets on the downtown streets during Maxwell Street Days, Thursday through Saturday.

It also is going ahead with two projects: construction of an old mill on Sequoit Creek and the acquisition or leasing of the old grade school building on Main St.

The site where the village's original mill will be reconstructed has been cleared of brush and now the commission is awaiting a grant from the state.

Marilyn Sterbenz, publicity chairman for the commission, said the school board "seems to

On Sunday, the antiques will be displayed near the Aqua Center from 9 a.m. until the auction begins at 2 p.m.

During Maxwell Street Days, the Lions will set up a Bicentennial booth on Main Street and sell crackerjack for one cent a box. (Just like the good old days, but with a limit of one box to a customer.)

Saturday, Aug. 2, will be

BARRY GOLDWATER

Student Loan 'Mess' Is Latest Scandal

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

The world's largest bureaucracy is spawning an ever-increasing number of fraud charges involving federal officials and recipients of government moneys.

Some observers believe that in aggregate the allegations involve billions of dollars. Charges of fraud and mismanagement in the welfare system alone are alleged to run into the hundreds of millions.

THE LATEST charges have been brought against the federally insured student loan program administered by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Federal and state officials have recently begun investigating a long list of charges which include collusion on a nationwide level among federal officials and owners of schools that operate for profit, illegal lending practices of participating banks and deceptive advertising by some of the schools.

The federal student loan program is 10 years old. In that time it has dispersed loans totalling $8 billion to 4.5 million students.

IT PERMITS undergraduates to borrow up to $2,500 a year from private lenders at 7 percent interest (an additional 3 percent is currently paid to the lenders by the government). Repayment is insured by the government in case the student defaults on the loan.

The program includes more than 8,800 schools and colleges and nearly 19,000 lending institutions. Included are 1,700 vocational and other schools which operate for profit.

One of the problems has been caused by the fact that several hundred of the proprietary schools have folded in recent years. Students charge that they are being held liable to repay their federal loans, even in cases where the schools closed before the students graduated.

THE WALL STREET Journal quoted a federal law enforcement officer as saying the student loan scandal "is going to be bigger" than the Billy Sol Estes scandal in the 1960s. Estes was a Texas operator who sold finance companies $24 million worth of mortgages on nonexistent fertilizer tanks.

The Journal further quoted the authorities as saying the loss to the government could run $500 million or more.

HEW officials claim that stupidity, greed and inertia "were big factors" in the irregularities now under investigation.

Bicentennial

be in agreement with the projects, providing that storage capacity is available for their supplies."

Fire Chief Tod Maplethorpe will go through the building with a contractor to see what kind of money and construction will be necessary to put the old school in condition for use as a historical museum and perhaps a community center.

Letters to the Editor

Doesn't Want Creek Enclosed

Letter to the Editor:

At a time when our nation seems to be outgrowing the plastic-concrete concept of "progress" and is rediscovering the worth of "natural," our village planners are still in the plastic-concrete age.

When communities across the nation are spending thousands to create small parklike areas in cities, our village is spending thousands to destroy a natural parklike area.

Would it be possible to solve the flooding problem in any other way? Is it really a question of ecology or "improvement?" Are we so ignorant and unimaginative that we must destroy to "improve?"

To me this is poor planning or a lack of real planning. Such "planning" as this created the flooding!

I thought the village would wait until objections were resolved and full permission was granted before beginning the creek project. I was wrong. Today I saw destruction. I would like to be proud of our community. Today I am ashamed of it.

Martha Schmidt

Dear Sir:

Concerning the Sequoit creek enclosure, the issue is not one of enclosing a creek or having flooding. The issue is what type of decisions do we want our village fathers to make.

Some information which is pertinent to the issue follows:

1. Sequoit Creek drains an extensive area of watershed, this area includes Loon Lake, Little Silver Lake, Oakwood Knolls and Village Green.

2. For the past few years (it's hard to determine because they wouldn't tell us this at the meeting on the enclosure) the villate (and one would assume the village engineer) has permitted certain parties to fill in the natural areas which permitted the water to be held and slowly released into the creek. For years this area had prevented the flooding.

3. Someone, whoever is in charge of sewers, perhaps Mr. Angelotti, permitted whoever owned Pittman Pontiac to install a culvert that was 4 feet too high. This is the reason for the project to cover and deepen the creek.

4. Oakwood Knolls and Village Green are having flooding problems. They also have a poor drainage system in those areas.

5. Since Mr. Angelotti has been our village engineer we have had two floods which are predicted to occur only once every 100 years. This might indicate that someone had caused something to change from its natural state, at least to a reasonable person.

6. Mr. Angelotti receives around 8 percent of the cost of the project as his fee for drawing up the plans.

7. Mr. Angelotti assured School District 34 and the taxpayers and students that he would take care to prevent any flooding of the school nature site. At the same time he was showing us the plans for increasing the size of almost every culvert between the project and 173 by the upper grade school. If there is going to be less water/minute why do we need bigger culverts?

8. As has been pointed out elsewhere, the committee did not seem at all interested in what anyone had to say. No one took notes, other than the village clerk as a matter of normal business.

9. Lake County Public Works Dept. has stated on July 12, 1974, (the Dept.)... "would have serious reservations about increasing the carrying capacity of Sequoit Creek"... "present policy of Lake County is to assume that the streams and tributaries (this includes all of Sequoit Creek) are at capacity." The letter is signed: Gerald Soderquist, Engineer.

St. Peter's Luncheon Features Fashion Hints

The Ladies of St. Peter's Church will present "Feminine Fashion Tricks" by Ilene Abrams at their annual Salad Bar Luncheon on Saturday, Aug. 16, at 12 noon.

Ilene presents a show full of informal fun, quick wardrobe tricks, beauty hints and fashion ideas to make you look good and feel great.

The highlight of her program is a fashion parade with models from the audience.

Ilene is a fashion columnist, designer, author and performer.

Tickets are available at St. Peter's Rectory, the local banks, and from members of the St. Peter's Altar and Rosary Society.

A woman is a person who thinks she's punishing her husband by not speaking to him.

The show resumes this Friday and Saturday and then on Friday and Saturday, Aug. 8-9. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. There is a possibility one additional performance will be scheduled if the remaining four nights are sellouts.

During the intermission and after the show last Saturday most of the audience was talking about Ken Smouse, who played the lead role of Tevye, the diaryman.

Ken has starred in South Pacific, Sound of Music and other PM&L productions and he is always excellent. But as Tevye, he goes far beyond his previous accomplishments. He is magnificent in the role.

Ken completely captivated the audience during the first act and, when he first appeared for the start of the second act, he was greeted by applause before he could speak his first line.

"FIDDLER" is the story of a small Jewish community buffeted by the winds of change in Russia on the eve of World War I. The people are "as poor as synagogue mice." It is a heartwarming story with excellent music. Tevye is the father of five daughters and there are scenes that might bring a tear to your eye as he begins to lose them.

The singing is excellent, especially the voices of Mr. Smouse ("If I Were a Rich Man") and Kim Kovach, who plays his second oldest daughter.

Tevye's talks with God will delight you, too.

"Dear God, I realize we're your chosen people, but every now and then couldn't you choose someone else?"

"Money is the world's curse. May the Lord smite me with it."

THERE ARE so many fine performers in the cast that mentioning them all would be like printing a small telephone book. So, with our apologies to the others who make this a great show, we'll mention just a few who especially delighted us.

First of all, PM&L's "Fiddler" is a reflection on the terrific job done by director Lou Jones.

Pat Jamison, as Tevye's wife, has a strong, important role and handles it flawlessly, just as Ken Smouse handles his.

Miss Kovach is lovely as Hodel. Fresh from starring on the local high school stage, she can really sing and act.

Lyn Zaehler, as Tevye's oldest daughter, is an accomplished actress and her every move is a reflection of the excellent dancer and choreographer that she is.

Frank Gaughan is delightful as the comedic Motel, the tailor.

Bruce Berger is a fine young actor as Perchik, the student, and that "old pro" Don Beveroth naturally is good as Lazar Wolf, the butcher.

Frank DiMarco, fairly new to the stage, shows remarkable polish in the role of Mardcha, the innkeeper.

The Russian dancing of Bill Beese, Rusty Long and another young actor whose name we didn't catch is one of the highlights, a show-stopper.

And you'll love Hank Apostol as "The Fiddler," even though he doesn't speak a line.

If you miss "Fiddler on the Roof" you are missing one of the best entertainments this community has offered in quite a while.

Erickson of the Illinois Dept. of conservation dated May 16, 1974, states: "The flooding problems the Chain is now experiencing, I think is partially connected with the disappearance of the floodplain allowing the run-off to flow immediately into the Chain rather than being discharged more slowly from the surrounding flood plain."

We did suggest some alternatives. Some of the alternatives were:

1. Dig up the pipe under Pittman Pontiac and replace it with a correctly placed pipe. Mr. Angelotti said this would stop the flooding. Would this cost $176,000?

2. Could retention ponds be placed in strategic areas to absorb the surplus water at flood times?

3. Work only on the East side of Main St., leaving the West side as is.

There were more than 50 individuals at the July 14 meeting and it was quite obvious that we were wasting our time. The plans had been made and they were not about to change them. I have to wonder who is being served when they tell us only what they want us to hear, when they want us to hear it. I'm sure that our trustees are acting in the best interests of the village, but why don't they tell us everything about this plan?

I'm also well aware that it is the duty of every citizen to pay attention to the affairs of the village, but if we did that where would they put us? The chamber only holds 38 people. It would be encouraging to receive the information from a trustee or a local paper before we receive a letter from some state official saying we can complain about something our neighbors have done or are about to do to us. We don't want to be treated as special interest groups, nor do we want CABL or Waste Management treated as special interest groups either. We want to be treated as people.

Sincerely,
Mike Teeley

DEEP LAKE HERMITAGE construction will soon begin on 15 acres to be developed by Edward Kidera and Dorothy Eiserman. The 144 three-story units will be located to the east side of Rt. 83, between the Lakeview Terrace apartments and the Baptist Children's Home.

Development Can Proceed

By BETSY ROSSEN

After eight months of negotiations, Edward Kidera and Dorothy Eiserman have been given the go-ahead for their Deep Lake Hermitage development.

The action came at last Wednesday's Lake Villa village board meeting where a zoning board of appeals recommendation and ordinance on the six-building, 144-unit complex were accepted 4-0 (two absent).

The property was rezoned from R-2 (residential) to R-5 with a planned residential development option.

The ZBA ordinance, formulated after a public hearing the night before, reflected concurrence with the plan commission.

That body had approved re-zoning and the development plan, but set the following conditions, also adopted by both the zoning and village boards:

Sidewalks from the development to Rt. 83, plans given to the fire department for access roads and hydrant springs, an earth dike to the east side, limitation of the lake pier to tenants, a buffer of trees and shrubs for the Central Baptist children's home, recreational vehicle parking be remote from general parking, and no boat storage on the site.

A MAJOR concern of village officials was sewer and water service, but the eighth condition states that acceptance of the plan is subject to the availability of the services. In addition, Kidera and Eiserman will work with trustee Charles Madsen's sewer and water committee.

Deep Lake Hermitage is not expected to have much impact on the schools, however high school superintendent Warren Polley did attend the public hearing. Projected input of the development is calculated at 15 elementary, four junior high and three high school students.

Kidera told the trustees he plans to start site work this fall, with construction slated for early spring. The project is believed to require 1½ years to complete with costs estimated at $3 million. Plans call for 48 one-bedroom and 96 two-bedroom units, two tennis courts and other recreational facilities.

MAYOR TED Nielsen announced that any homeowner with his own well system (that is, those not using the village sanitation system) will not be requested to install a meter.

The board voted to hire Darwin Airola as a part-time patrolman for a six-month probationary period, as recommended by the police committee chaired by Chase Millsop. Airola, a three-month Lake Villa resident, has lived in the area for 26 years. His previous experience includes work with the Round Lake police.

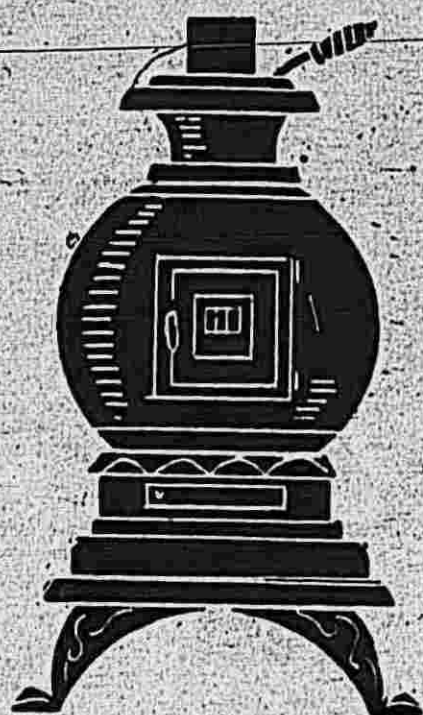

The Lindenhurst and Lake Villa Jaycees were granted a special event liquor license for their Aug. 23 Flea Market and Auction. The activity is scheduled for the Pleviak School parking lot.

NAVY BOILER Technician Third Class Rory T. O'Donovan, son of Mrs. Dorothy Arteaga of 114 Hickory Drive, Lindenhurst, is serving aboard the guided missile frigate, USS Reeves, homeported at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

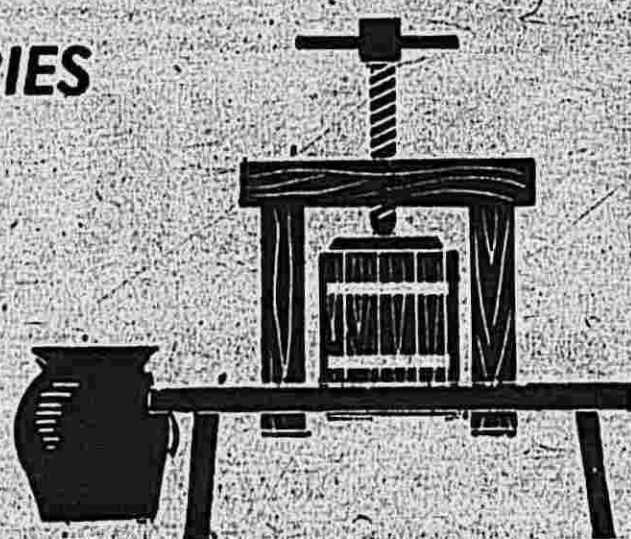

He and his shipmates are scheduled to participate in various training exercises and visit several Pacific Islands.

State Bank Offers Free Checking Account Service

William E. Brook, president of the State Bank of Antioch, announced today that the State Bank is offering its customers free personal checking account service which will allow them to write an unlimited amount of checks and make any number of deposits without worrying about a service charge for checking or statements.

Mr. Brook emphasized that there is no minimum balance required on the new, free, money-saving checking account service for new or existing accounts. In addition, the State Bank pays the postage on mail deposits.

State Bank checking account customers, according to Mr. Brook, can broaden their use of free checking by taking advantage of other checking account services designed for convenient, full-service, banking.

The State Bank "Around The Clock Cash" currency dispensing machine operates 24 hours a day in the front of the lobby of the bank for the convenience of checking account customers.

It is quick and easy to use, with built-in safeguards for the bank and its customers. Cash withdrawals (up to $60 per day, $20 per pack) are deducted from the customer's checking account balance and all such transactions appear on the monthly statement.

The State Bank Check-N-Charge loan service lets the customer write checks for more money than he has in his checking account. No special checks or separate loan applications are required each time extra money is needed. Check-N-Charge checking now offers free checking with a built-in balance that is ready and waiting.

The photo identification service now available provides a personal State Bank Photo I.D. card, complete with color photo of the customer for instant, positive identification for cashing checks. One glance at the tamper-proof I.D. card tells any merchant, restaurant owner or businessman the identity of the cardholder with his social security number for simple, quick identification that is an asset to checking account customers.

Anyone interested in applying for a State Bank free checking account and related services is urged to stop in soon.

Bicentennial - Original 13 can be a bargain for the family vacations from now through 1976. There will be many families taking their children out of school for such trips and will prove very educational. As they say, seeing is believing and children remember more this way than if it was read in a school textbook.

As a result, the nation's Bicentennial committee has gotten together THE DECLARATION OF DISCOUNTS. It is the official discount program of 3 Bicentennial cities (New York, Philadelphia and Washington, D.C.). It contains $400 worth of discounts for dinners, attractions, major museums and top retailers as well.

These books only cost $2.95 each and, I can say, offer very real savings during a very savings-minded period. Each of the three cities have their own book and are good through Nov. 30, 1976. As a result, what you don't use up this year, you can use next.

This just isn't a Bicentennial item, but good for anyone going to these three cities. Vacation, business, convention, whatever; THE DECLARATION OF DISCOUNTS can save you a lot. Give a call to your local travel agency and he can obtain them for you.

VFW Aims for Building

A building fund and a membership drive are being started by Sequoit Post 4551, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

All veterans who served overseas during World War I, World War II, and in the Korean and Vietnam wars, are being invited to join the Antioch VFW post.

James J. Egem, a spokesman for the post, said:

"If you are interested you can contact Commander Kenneth Liddle at 395-0233, Senior Vice-Commander Dr. Robert W. Bywell at 395-0840, or myself at 395-5512.

"Membership dues are only $11 for new members or $10 for reinstated and continuous members," he said. "It's not the price you pay to become a VFW member, but the price you paid to become eligible."

Egem said there are many benefits available to veterans and the VFW can aid persons in applying for them.

"Our goal is a VFW post home of our own," he said, "and we are going to start numerous fund raising projects to add to our building fund."

He asked that contributions to be sent to Sequoit Post 4551 at 917 David St., in Antioch.

The post is beginning a paper drive and a truck, donated by Cunningham Cartage, will be situated at the Aqua Center where people can bring their papers.

Antioch Mighty Proud Of Its Rescue Squad

By BETSY ROSSEN

There's a lot of pride in Antioch, but seldom is it shown so openly as when the words "rescue squad" are mentioned.

The village's 21-member team of trained paramedics is currently receiving about 700 calls per year. The system is primarily on a "first to the trucks" basis, with the only "on call" schedule in effect for summer Sundays.

Approximately half of the men work in town, meeting the needs for two men per hospital run call and three per accident call. Since every member has a pocket radio at home, night calls pose no problem. About 50 percent of the calls are for accidents; 30 percent heart; and 20 percent hospital runs.

Led by Capt. Jim Fields, the squad is comprised of applicants over 18 who have passed an advanced first aid course and served one year on probation. In addition, each must take another course, the EMT, within his first year on the squad. The current team has no members with less than three years experience on the squad.

Fields is assisted by Lieutenants Rod White and Gordy Volling, all three of whom have served as officers for the past eight years.

Sunday's Lions Club Picnic will aid in purchasing equipment. The main pieces the squad has now are two trucks, an ambulance and two heart machines (also called "life packs"). The squad purchases one new truck every two years. Costs for non-vehicle equipment, maintenance, insurance and upkeep total $14,000 per year.

Arlington Park, name of Kissapotamus, is a thoroughbred worth watching.

When I took my teen-age daughters to the track three weeks ago, Ann, seeing her first horse race, bet $2 on Kissapotamus just because she liked the name. The filly won a few dollars for her.

Since then we notice that Kissapotamus has won two more races. If you happen to be going to Arlington on a day that she's running, stop by and we'll give you $2 to place on her nose. (And a lump of sugar for when she struts past you in the paddock.)

ANOTHER YEAR, ANOTHER CHAMPION STEER - The Lake County Fair 4-H Reserve Grand Champion steer was successfully bid for by Irving Carey, right, a director of the State Bank of Antioch, at Saturday's Lake County Fair Auction. Observed by vice presidents of the State Bank, Preston Reckers and Jack Fields, center, the 4-H Reserve Champion is shown by Roy Bailey of Picket Fence Farm, Grayslake. Roy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bailey, raised the steer that will be donated by the State Bank to the Antioch Lions Club for the benefit of the Antioch Aqua Center, and the Antioch Little League and Babe Ruth League.

Swimmers Set Conference Marks

This past weekend saw lots of action for the Antioch Aqua

Center's swim team, placing fourth in the North Suburban Conference championship meet.

It was won by the always powerful Lake Forest Club with 234 points, followed closely by Brentwood 218, Plum Grove 214, Antioch 168, Tennaqua 149, Lincolnshire 70, and Old Willow 45.

The State Bank of Antioch-sponsored swimmers set three conference records. John Schmidt broke his last year's record in the 12 and under 25 meter fly (15.9). In the next event, Jean Cilik came through in the girls' fly to set that record (16.6).

Young George Besette, swimming the 25 meter backstroke broke the record set in 1966 (17.9). Sue Berry also broke a conference record in the 50 meter back, but had to settle for a second place as Marianne Mutow of Brentwood beat her and set the new record.

Placing first was John Schmidt in the 50 meter freestyle (32.1) and Sue Berry in the 50 meter fly (35.7), and Theodore Besette in 50 meter breaststroke (42.1).

MARINE PRIVATE David L. Schlach, son of Mr. Gerald S. Schlach of Rt. 2, Lake Villa, has graduated from recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego, Calif.

AT LAKE GENEVA RACEWAYSame Car Wins For Man, Lady

Chuck Ostergaard of Kenosha won the 25-lap feature race for All-American Late Model Sportsman stock cars at Lake Geneva Raceway Sunday night. He then turned his car over to Carol Peterson, Antioch, who drove it to a win in the 10-lap "Ladies Lib Powderpuff" race. Ostergaard held off Don Patterson, Silver Lake, early in the 25-lap race and was pulling away at the end. Patterson lost out to Jerry Straube, Waterford and dropped to third. John Burbridge, Milwaukee, drove his 1973 convertible Camaro late model stock car to a feature race win Saturday night at Lake Geneva. It was his first feature there this season and he picked the 50-lap, mid-season championship race to make it to victory circle.

It was a good choice because he won before another record crowd for the Raceway and was joined in "Victory Circle" by girls in swim suits to receive a five-foot trophy.

Steve Lurvey and Red Hutchinson touched wheels and went into a long skid that ended with each car taking out a light standard and with debris striking infield safety man Steve Ruldoph, Twin Lakes, causing him to be hospitalized along with Lurvey. Lurvey complained of an ankle injury. He did not want to make the trip to the hospital but once enroute, he passed out twice before reaching Lakeland Hospital in Elkhorn.

College Gets McGuire

Vic McGuire, former Antioch High School basketball and track star, has accepted an athletic scholarship at Doane College in Crete, Nebr.

He will be a sophomore at the school this fall.

After graduating from Antioch in June of 1974, McGuire played basketball last winter for the College of Lake County. He also continued his track and field career in the high jump, in which he has cleared 6 feet 5 inches.

EVE JANUARY, of Rt. 2, Antioch, has been named to the Dean's List at Rockford College for the 1975 spring semester.

The list includes full-time students whose grade point achievement was close to a straight-A average.

managed quite well - broken rib and all. Seems he was jabbed by an elbow in dress rehearsal during the pile up scene. I think my favorite scene was in Teyve's bedroom. Teyve in his long nightgown, Golde, Grandma Tzeitel and Lazar Wolf's dead wife's ghost were something else!

The Antioch Community High School Class of 1925 held their 50th reunion last Saturday evening at the Country Squire Restaurant in Grayslake. Harry Willett and his wife came from California, Mildred Hulik and her husband from Florida and Charles Paddock and his wife from North Dakota. Others attending from the area were Peg Webb, Edith Elms, Marguerite Nelson, Lillian Gartley, Cornelia Roberts, Kate Minto, Ward Abt, Ella Howe, Dorothy Shultis and Cliff Hook.

Ward Abt, as master of ceremonies recalled many things from the past. Lots of reminiscing and renewing old acquaintances made for a fun evening. Members are already planning for another reunion in ten years.

Many thanks to Cornelia Roberts for all her planning and hard work to make this night possible.

CONGRATS to the Cardinals, managed by Bill Nauman and Bill Weber, who are the 1975 Little League Champs. Really was an exciting play-off. Those Tigers sure did have an active cheerleading section - seems they had trouble spelling though!

Congrats also to the gals on the Antioch Softball League All-Star team (ages 9 through 12) who won 11-5 against the Round Lake all-stars. Ginny Behne was voted the most valuable player by the Round Lake coaches.

Condolences to the Phil Laurin and Ted Oleander families.

Spectacular Crashes at Wilmot Track

Super modified race car driver Dick Colburn of Muskego, Wis., did it again Saturday night at the Wilmot speedway, winning his fourth straight feature race - this one the 35-lap mid-season special.

But his feat was overshadowed by a spectacular series of crashes and mishaps which kept the crowd on its feet most of the evening.

The most terrifying of them occurred early in the feature event as the speeding open-wheeled racer of Milwaukee's Bill Kojis caught fire and he continued racing, unaware of it. With the fans waving frantically, officials around the track tried to signal Kojis to pull off.

Starter Roger Cox of Lindenhurst quickly dropped the red flag, signalling all cars to halt the race. Kojis, now aware of the fire, bailed out of the car which was engulfed in flames.

Thanks to his flameproof driver's suit and quick work from track personnel, he escaped injury.

Later, the car of Joe Kristen of Waukegan ran up and over the wheel of the car of Bill Klein of Burlington, Wis., and Kristen's machine shot into the air like a rocket. It slammed down on its wheels and Kristen was able to get the crippled car off the track despite a broken axle.

In the super modified feature event, Mike Matthews of Richmond lost control coming out of the fourth turn and slammed head-on into the retaining wall in front of the grand stands. Matthews was shaken up but not seriously hurt.

Coming up on the Interstate Racing Assn. schedule at Wilmot are several special events:

On Saturday, Aug. 2, a series of go kart races will augment the regular program.

On Wednesday, Aug. 6, a full program of racing is planned for the opening night of the Kenosha County Fair.

On Saturday, Aug. 9, a 40-lap fair feature will head the regular program.

Firemen, Police Have Busy Night

Sirens had quite a workout after midnight last Friday as three fires broke out and someone attempted to break in.

The excitement began at 12:30 a.m. at routes 173 and 45 where a barn was destroyed by flames. A nearby parked car was totally destroyed, but no injuries were reported.

At 4:30 a.m. police Sgt. Charles Miller observed smoke coming from a 1968 Buick in the Impala Motors lot at routes 173 and 83. Unable to put out the fire with the squad car extinguisher, he called for fire department assistance. Origin of the fire is still unknown.

Miller was then called immediately to the Ben Franklin store, where Officer Harold Mason joined him in investigating a broken double glass door. The two heard a doorknob click and assumed someone was still in the building.

Miller returned to his squad car for a shotgun and began an unproductive search of the building with Mason, Chief Jack Wells, Lt. Tim Zelinski and Lake Villa police officers Bocochin and Ariola.

Police dispatcher Debbie Gliniewicz received a call at 4:45 a.m. from Mike Lytle, 20, who reported a vehicle on fire in the Sunset Motel lot on Rt. 173 just east of Rt. 83. The fire department had extinguished the flames.

The car, a 1969 Ford, had been parked by a motel guest, but was registered to an Ingleside man.

Swim-A-Thon Next Wednesday

A Swim-A-Thon for the benefit of the Antioch Aqua Center will be held next Wednesday, Aug. 6, sponsored by the Lions Club.

Money raised by the swimmers will help cover costs of the Lions' recent pool refurbishing.

Members of the Antioch swim team will participate along with other youths who wish to support this benefit.

PRIZES WILL be awarded to those who raise the most money. First prize is a 5-speed bicycle, second prize a cassette tape player, and third prize a portable phonograph.

Entry sheets and pledge forms are available at the State Bank of Antioch and the First National Bank of Antioch.

On the day of the swim, registration and starting time is 12 noon to 8 p.m. Swimmers should bring along a towel and sweatshirt or windbreaker for the time they may be out of the pool. The refreshment stand will be open.

Swimmers under the age of 18 must have a waiver form (which comes with the entry sheet) signed by a parent or guardian.

"GETTING SPONSORS is fun and a challenge," said a spokesman for the Lions Club.

"Ask your family, friends, neighbors, doctor, dentist, co-workers and merchants to sponsor you, and let them know how important it is."

The greater the pledge per length, the greater the effort will support the Aqua center, and the greater the participant's chance for a prize.

After the swim, participants will have their lengths totaled and their sponsor sheets signed by an authorized Lions Club member. They must then return to their sponsors with the pledge and get a check or cash for the Antioch Aqua Center.

Pledges must be turned in by Aug. 30, the deadline for winning prizes.

Young Gets 40th Win At Waukegan

Ray Young won Sunday night's 30-lap late model feature at Waukegan Speedway over Carl Major and Tom Jones.

Young, the night's quickest qualifier, took second from Lee Schuler in the 10th lap and then chased Major until the 19th lap when he shot into the lead.

The feature was run non-stop, despite an incident in the 24th lap when Bob May and Lou Clavey collided. May's car jumped into the air before landing on all four wheels. He dropped out after running in sixth place.

The win was Young's 40th at the Waukegan track since it was paved for the 1969 season. The victory also increased his lead in the Chicagoland Driving Championship.

A special 50-lap August championship for late model stocks will be run at the Speedway Saturday night, Aug. 9. Young, Major and Jones are among the early entries.

LIBERTYVILLE'S Ted Richter nearly pulled the upset of the season Saturday night at Waukegan in the late model stock car feature but, when the

Successful Year For Sequoit Suzies

A successful 15th 4-H year for the Antioch area Sequoit Suzies started the week before the Lake County Fair actually opened.

Several members entered garments for judging and at the "Dress Review" the members learned that in "You Learn to Sew" Rosalie Aschbacher received an "A" rating on her garment. Meanwhile, in "You Make Your Own Clothes" Lynette Hamlin received a grand champion ribbon and was selected to represent Lake County at the Illinois State Fair.

Rosemary Scheske, whose garment was so well constructed, received an "A" rating and was selected for the State Fair along with Sue Hevrdejs' grand champion outfit in "You Buy Your Own Clothes."

Another Sequoit Suzies outfit going to State Fair is Laura Miller's white "grand champion" crocheted tennis outfit.

The following week the members entered a variety of projects. Foods topped the list with Sue Hevrdejs receiving a grand champion in yeast breads.

Also receiving ratings in foods were Rosemary Scheske, Cathy Ashbacher, Sue Hevrdejs, Rosline Scheske, Lynette Hamlin, Lisa Holmes, Rosalie Aschbacher and Julie Ann Rey.

Arts and crafts was another favorite area and participants included most of the girls mentioned above.

Several girls entered a flower arranging contest with Rosemary Scheske as the grand champion winner and state delegate, while Patti Gross received the reserved grand champion award. Lisa Holmes went home with a blue ribbon. The club created a booth and displayed facts on food and nutrition. Rosemary Scheske was the chairman.

KEPT IN STITCHES - Crocheting and knitting winners in recent 4-H judging were (from left) Susan Williams, Lynette Hamlin and Marsha Fallon, and (kneeling) Laura Miller.

Antioch Man Dies in Crash

checkered flag fell, Tom Jones of Northbrook was the winner.

Richter took the 30-lap feature lead in the second lap and opened up a comfortable margin over the balance of the field.

Earlier in the evening Richter's white Chevelle had become airborne and nearly flipped over in a spectacular heat race collision; however the damage was superficial as the former sportsman champion drove the best race of his career.

Meanwhile Jones had his sights set on his 12th feature win of the season at Waukegan and methodically worked his way up to third by the 9th lap.

Jones closed the gap between him and Richter and the two ran bumper-to-bumper for several laps to the delight of the crowd before Jones slipped into the lead as they raced into the 22nd lap.

The hobby stock feature came to a crashing conclusion as the 12-lap event was declared complete after 10 laps as cars were scattered all over the track.

Cardinals Win Championship

The Anderson Auto Sales Cardinals are Antioch's 1975 Little League champions.

They beat the State Bank of Antioch Tigers in a best-of-three playoff series last week. Manager Bill Nauman's Cardinals won the first game 12-10, lost the second 5-7 and then won the deciding game on Friday 10-3.

Milo Bailey managed the Tigers, who had won the American Division title while the Cardinals were topping the National Division.

The Lyons-Ryans Cubs, managed by Jack Christiansen, surprised everyone by winning the Round Robin tournament for the Mayor's Trophy. The Cubs, who had a 4-10 record during the regular season, polished off three opponents in last week's tournament - the Astros, the Giants, and then the Orioles in the championship game.

In Saturday's Minor League All-Star game, the Americans beat the Nationals 8-1.

Then, in the Little League 12-year-old game, scheduled for 9 innings to give everyone a chance to play, the National Division beat the American Division 17-10.

AND THIS GENTLEMAN will receive a $20 gift certificate from Antioch Firestone. All he has to do is stop at our offices at 950 Main St.

Freedom Train At Navy Pier, But Not Here

Still wondering if the Freedom Train will be stopping in Antioch this weekend?

A phone call and subsequent discussion on the Wally Phillips radio show started rumors flying Monday morning, but a call to WGN by village clerk Marilyn Sterbenz set things straight. The caller had asked where the train would stop nearest Antioch.

Chicago's Navy Pier is the answer, where the 26-car "rolling museum" will visit through this Sunday on its 17,000 mile journey across the country.
